

Proposition 39 Implementation Program – Funding Allocation for Energy Projects

Majority of Funding for Grants to Local Educational Agencies (LEAs)  ($428 million)	89% for K-12  ($381 million)	85% of funds based on prior year Average Daily Attendance (ADA)  (~$324 million)	$15,000 for LEAs with 100 or less ADA, plus FRPM	To support deeper energy retrofit projects which will help ensure greater long-term energy savings and additional job creation, the Program: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Allows small districts (with ADA of 1,000 or less) to bundle two years of allocations for larger energy projects, if requested in writing to CDE by August 1</li><li>Requires districts with funding over $1 million to use 50% of their allocation on large projects (defined as $250,000+)</li></ul>
		15% of funds based on prior year eligibility for free and reduced-priced meals (FRPM)  (~$57 million)	Proportional award based on ADA or $50,000, whichever is greater, for LEAs with more than 100 and 1,000 or less ADA, plus FRPM
			Proportional award based on ADA or $100,000, whichever is greater, for LEAs between 1,000 and 2,000 ADA, plus FRPM
			Proportional award based on ADA for LEAs of 2,000 or more ADA, plus FRPM
	11% ($47 million)	Community Colleges Districts representing 112 colleges Allocated at the discretion of the Chancellor
$28 million	California Energy Commission’s Energy Conservation Assistance Account (ECAA) Program	K-14 financing and technical assistance  Financing assistance includes low or zero interest loans
$5 million	California Conservation Corps		To perform energy surveys and other energy conservation-related activities
$3 million	California Workforce Investment Board		Competitive grants for community based organizations and other workforce training organizations preparing veterans or disadvantaged youth for employment

Sources: California State Budget – 2013-14, Senator Kevin de Leon and the California Energy Commission